P. L. L., 1888, Art. 23, sec. 190. 1880, ch. 272. 1902, ch. 295, sec. 190.

136. It shall not be lawful for stock of any kind to run at large in Quantico, nor within the following described limits: Beginning at the bridge across Quantico Creek on the south side, and the residence of Willie Gillups on the west, and to the woods on the new road through the farm of John Dorman on the east.

136A. It shall be the duty of any constable or officer of the law to take up and impound any stock which may be found going at large, and any constable or officer of the law so taking up and impounding shall notify a justice of the peace resident within said county, who shall give notice of said impounding by advertisement set up at one or more public places, describing the stock so impounded and same will be sold at public auction at some place in said limits within four days; provided, that if the owner of any stock impounded under this section shall prove to the satisfaction of the justice that said stock did not go at large from negligence or want of care on his part, and that due diligence was used to prevent it, he shall have return of the property on paying the justice of the peace such fees as he would receive for similar work, as is provided in the Estray law. The constable shall receive fifty cents for taking up of each "Stock." He shall also receive for board as follows, viz: Horses and mules fifty cents per day, cattle thirty cents and swine ten cents per day.

137. Out of all monies arising from the execution of the preceding section the justice of the peace shall collect and pay to the party taking and impounding said stock such fees as are prescribed in the preceding section, and the balance to the owner who may establish his claim to said
